The Audition

Structured like a real audition, you will perform either a musical or monologue short selection and then receive constructive criticism just like the pros. This mock audition gives the group the real insight into the feel of getting the gig. Become the real audience.

Conversations: Behind The Scenes

Meet the performers structured as a rap session. Features up to three artists from one or more productions in a question and answer format.

Technical Theater: Behind The Scenes

A focus on the non-performance aspects of the show: the combined efforts of the design and directing team. Topics include the teams that work on costume, make-up, hair, lighting, set and stage design.

Improvisation

Theatrical experts work with you to create a fun filled experience impromptu experience called improvisation. Create characters based on given circumstances and interact in simulated environments together with prop use sketch comedy theater games.

Mask Making and Theatrical Puppetry

In this hands-on workshop, visual arts meet the performing arts. Led by the pros, you will create your own masks and puppets and learn to manipulate them in theatrical ways.

5,6,7,8...The Dance Experience

You need not be experienced dancers. This dance workshop led by the pros addresses basic dance techniques tailored to the group. This exciting class culminates in the rehearsal and run through of the choreography from a popular Broadway show.

The Actor's Toolbox

The artists reveal the secrets of how scene work and character development are approached. The group will participate in the basic techniques such as characterization, objectives and given circumstances and you will learn by doing.

The Singing Actor

Let the pros teach you about the mechanics and interpretation of song. This workshop teams a performer/singer with musical accompanist and teaches the art of musical ensemble featuring the most popular Broadway tunes.

Theatrical Comedy

Explore the various facets of theatrical comedy through improvisation, theatre games and scene study. Your theater professional will tailor the worlds of sketch, clowning and physical comedy according to the group dynamic.
